Thoughts:- Compassion naturally gives rise to tolerance and forgiveness. It allows us to appreciate that even someone we think of as an enemy is a human being with a right to be happy. Your enemy can be your best teacher because he or she teaches the possibility of unconditional compassion. God saves with Love, not with force, offering himself, not imposing himself.

Parish Notices

Parish Meeting: A record of the viewpoints expressed at the Parish meeting are now available at the back of church.

Visioning Group: My grateful thanks to all who have responded to my decision to form a Visioning group for the Parish. Fifteen parishioners have volunteered up to now. The group may have to downsize a little, but in the meantime, I shall leave this invitation open for another couple of days. After this, I shall contact all of those who have volunteered. I intend to have our first meeting at the end of the month.

National board of Catholic women:- We are hoping to begin a women's discussion group in the north and south Sefton deaneries. All women are very welcome to join us for our first get together on Wednesday 13th July at 7.30pm in the Gild Hall Formby. Discussions will be centred around women within the church, the obstacles they face and how we can move forward in the future to enable us to have an active role within the church. All ideas can then be fed back to the bishops of England and Wales via our archdiocesan representative for the National board of Catholic women. If you are interested but cannot attend you are welcome to e-mail Pat Murphy on mpmmurphy@aol.com or Clare McCarthy on claremccarthy488@gmail.com with any views or comments.

EXPOSITION of the BLESSED SACRAMENT will take place at 9.15am on Wednesday morning prior to the Service of the Word and Communion

The Chatter: in the lounges of the Gild Hall will be open on Wednesday afternoon from 2pm to 3:30pm. This week will be the last gathering before taking a Summer holiday break.
