GOOD NEWS

• CAFOD JUBILEE ICON

On Sunday, the CAFOD Jubilee Icon made its way to the Justice and Peace Youth Group in South Liverpool. The young people had a chance to get up close and discover all the hidden symbolism within the painting.

John Elcock, an artist who painted the Icon in Bishop Eton church, came to speak to the group about icons which was fascinating, and hopefully in the future there will be another session when the young people can work with John to produce their own version of an icon.

The Icon was then whisked away to the Isle of Man to make its final stop on its tour of the Liverpool Archdiocese.

• ADOREMUS 2025

Last Saturday 8th November, hundreds of people visited our Cathedral throughout the day to take part in Adoremus, a day of Eucharistic Renewal. The morning began with Mass celebrated by Archbishop John Sherrington. The Blessed Sacrament was exposed throughout the day and the Sacrament of Reconciliation was available. In the afternoon Archbishop John led a time of diocesan prayer including a procession around the Cathedral. After the relics of Saint Carlo Acutis and Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati were venerated Bishop Tom Neylan celebrated the evening Mass. Throughout the day a number of workshops took place, each focusing on an element of Ministry. It is great to be able to say that these were fully subscribed!
