GOOD NEWS

• RITE OF ELECTION 2026

On Sunday 22 February, 550 people were involved in this year's Rite of Election service at the Metropolitan Cathedral of Christ the King. It was wonderful to see so many Catechumens and Candidates alongside their friends, families, and Catechists meeting Archbishop Sherrington at the cathedral and being brought into the Catholic Church. Please keep praying for the Catechumens and Candidates during this season of Lent.

NEW UPDATES THIS WEEK

• REVIEW OF YOUTH MINISTRY

We're pleased to announce that the review of youth ministry in our archdiocese has begun! Working alongside the youth ministry coordinator, Sarah McGeehan, Danny Curtin is facilitating a series of one-to-one interviews to hear about the work that is already being done and to find out areas for development. There will be an open-door synodal discussion for anyone interested in the future of youth ministry after Easter, so keep an eye out and come along! • ADVENTUROUS ACCOMPANIMENT WORKSHOP

Whether you hold a particular role within the Church or simply share in the life and mission of the Archdiocese, this invitation is for you. You are warmly invited to take part in the Adventurous Accompaniment formation programme delivered by Million Minutes.

The programme takes place over a six-week journey, including three four-hour workshops, and online resources to explore and offers participants the opportunity to explore the core principles of Adventurous Accompaniment and to reflect on how these can be embedded in everyday encounters and parish life.

Adventurous Accompaniment is not about training people for specialist roles, but about nurturing a shared culture of accompaniment across the archdiocese, in response to the Church's call to walk with others.
