GOOD NEWS

• JUBILEE YEAR OF HOPE

As the Jubilee Year of Hope draws to a close, we give thanks for a year filled with prayer and renewal across the Archdiocese of Liverpool. With our archdiocesan Jubilee Doors set to close on 28 December, we look back on the many celebrations that have shaped this year.

From coming together ecumenically as Pilgrims of Hope during the Pentecost Walk, to the rich programme of talks, worship, and social action, our communities have embraced the Jubilee spirit with a great deal of enthusiasm. This October and November, the arrival of the Jubilee Icon united us even further in prayer and celebration.

We extend our thanks to everyone who participated in the Jubilee events and helped to spread the message of hope throughout the archdiocese. We are especially grateful to the generosity of parishes, schools, charities, and community groups who worked hard to organise Jubilee activities and host the Jubilee icon in their own spaces.

As we approach the end of 2025, we look forward to carrying this spirit of hope into the year ahead!

• CHRISTMAS CARD APPEAL - ARCHDIOCESE OF LIVERPOOL'S JUSTICE & PEACE COMMISSION

The Archdiocese of Liverpool's Justice & Peace Commission is once again inviting parishes, schools, and individuals to take part in the cherished tradition of sending Christmas cards to Christians in the Holy Land. Archbishop John Sherrington has welcomed this initiative, encouraging parishes, schools, individuals, and justice and peace groups to take part once again this year.

"Receiving a Christmas card will bring hope and joy to a family, especially where the Christian community is small and fragile, and remind them they are not forgotten. I know that your prayers for them at this holy time will be a source of comfort and consolation"
Archbishop John Sherrington

In addition to the card campaign, this year's crib offerings in the Archdiocese of Liverpool will be securely transmitted to the Latin Patriarchate of Jerusalem; a diocese of the Catholic Church whose territory includes Cyprus, Jordan, Israel and Palestine. This ensures your generosity directly supports Christians living in these areas. To find out more and for instructions on how to get involved, you can visit:
